

Purpose

The purpose of the Society is to promote common interests of its members and establish links between them. Additionally, the Society aims to enhance interactions between members and the community and provide an information channel for developments and events at the University of Oxford and other academic institutions.